Halifax Grammar School Presents

The 34th Edition Of The Grammarians

Dedication

As we were considering about who or what we should dedicate this yearbook to, we had many disagreements. We then changed our approach on how we were thinking about this issue. We decided that instead of only focusing on this school and its students, that we're going to consider the lives of those less fortunate than us.

We would like you, for just a moment, to think about your life with all its luxuries, and compare it to the lives of students our age, who are in war-torn cities such as Sarajevo. Not long ago several children and a teacher died while participating in an everyday activity which we do, or have taken for granted. These children were playing in their school playground when sniper fire. Because of this the Muslim cleric had to ask photographers to stop using flash bulbs fearing the light might aid snipers.

"The children of Bosnia are being killed and yet they are innocent." This was said by the same Muslim cleric. This is one example of the many horrible stories which can be found in many countries of the world. We realize that any one who has not experienced such tragedy can never fully understand what is happening. The best we can do for the most part is acknowledge that this violence exists. We are sure that any one from these war-stricken nation would appreciate our thoughts and prayers.

Thank you.

Headmaster's Note

As the new Headmaster, sage. completing my first year at the Halifax Grammar School, I am very pleased to be able to address you in this special Grammarian mes-

Shortly after my arrival at the school last August I was visited by Natalie Vladi and Mary Kate Arnold, two Grade 12 students, who came to meet me and to talk about the school, the role of the Students' Council, and their views as Senior students involved with student affairs. At that time I was impressed with their candour and their eloquence in stating their opinions and sincerity which I felt in their welcoming me to the school. Since that meeting I have come to realize that HGS students, in general, share many of the same characteristics. They have a way of dealing with things that is both forthright and empathetic. When students have something to say they say it directly; when students become involved with activities they do so enthusiastically; when students take on academic tasks they complete them diligently; and when students relate with others they do so with sincerity and concern. The Halifax Grammar School is a lent academic program, a solid sports and activities agenda, and, most of all, a group of young people whom it is a pleasure to know and to work with. As I come to school, day after day, and see people (parents, students, teachers) enjoying the friendship and community of the school I realize how lucky I am to be able to be part of HGS.

For the students who are graduating in 1994, I extend you the very warmest of best wishes from the staff and student body. You have contributed to the school during your years by both your presence and your active involvement in school life. You will be missed as you go on to new challenges but as you do so we encourage you to keep in mind the values, principles that have characterized your days at HGS.

M.A. MacPherson
Headmaster

Student Council

Realizing that it was going to be difficult to compete in humour with Martin's report from last year, I decided to approach this from a different angle. A somewhat more serious, subdued and, oh, shall we say, more respectable angle.

Student Council has always been there, to represent the feelings and attitudes of the students at HGS, so it's really great that we have been getting a lot of input from all the grades. So far, working on Student Council has been a blast and with winter carnival, semiformal, house challenges, and many more activities coming up, I'm sure that the fun will continue. Aside from a few crises, like the whereabouts of a missing cash box and canteen locker combinations that seems to change everyday, everything has been running smoothly; I hope you all agree (if not there's a brand new suggestion box just waiting to be used).

In my thought I have seen signs of smoke through trees . . . (Oh, is that Zeplin? Sorry, I'm really not just trying to fill up this page!) Thanks to everyone on Council and to Mr. Marchand for giving up so many lunch hours for meeting and not complaining about how cold the chemistry lab is. I'm sure that this will be a good year.

Student Council President,
Natalie Vladi

Editor's Note

In helping us prepare this year-book, we would especially like to thank.

Ray Burke
Dr. Chapman
Julie Henderson
Jennifer Byrant
Bradley McCallum
Janet Cooper
Mandy Horton
Wynne Lock
Alice Maclachlan
Liza Piper
Mary Kate Arnold
Sarah Bryant
Rachel Butlin

and along with the HGS staff members who helped us pull the needed materials together.

It was just over one year ago that we, Christina Lee and Farah Mukhida, blindly accepted our fate as year-book editors. To some, this may seem to be an easy task; however, you may better understand our position as "editors" if you take into consideration the background photo of this page. Some people may believe that all grammar students are born organized and able to domineer, so that they can easily handle such a responsibility. This picture, however, can certainly prove them wrong.

After many hours of pondering and video games (at which Christina has finally mastered (Uh ... whatever)), the 1994 version of the Grammarian has finally been completed.

We hope you will enjoy it!!!

Mary-Kate Arnold
John Keats/ John Keats/ John
Please put your scarf on. -SEYMOIR GLASS

Mary-Kate Arnold

Mary-Kate fondly known as Mary Katherine Boyle Arnold Jackson has been an active member of the Halifax Grammar School since Grad 4. She can often be found in darkrooms (for photographic reason, of course) developing two hundred supposedly different pictures of the same thing. We will remember her for her many hair styles, her love of chocolate, and her artistic prowess and her ability, as demonstrated during her co-editorship of the Gammurian. Little did we think Mary-Kate would have such a tendency towards the controversial, as we found she did when she published her now-famous article for Sassy, Skater babes. Mary-Kate has been highly involved in both drama and writing within the community, and she was appointed head prefect after many years of being class representative. We know Mary-Kate will excel in whatever field she chooses, and we wish her luck in her future endeavors at Kings, U of T, McGill or where ever.

Sjoerd Borst

Sjoerd Borst
"Finding untrue Christ's knowledge, His Garden's Secrets . . ." -VALENIVIS

Sjoerd was a quiet and conspicuous chap when he first joined da HGS posse in Grade 8. Well just look at what this institution of knowledge did to him in only four 'short years'. And boy, have those joyous years been . . . really . . . great? Throughout his stay at HGS, Sjoerd maintained a high level of activity. His more prominent titles included honourary member of the Sanitary Engineer Fan Club, Chief Designer of the Action Adventure Man interactive comic series, leader of discussion in TOCK (Theory of Carnal Knowledge) and founder, President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Activity Coordinator, and sole member of the S. Whidden Cult (who have been known to perform . . . deviant activities). But seriously Sjoerd's sparkling personality, lofty sense of Humor and key marketing skills will be a grievous loss to us all. We'll all miss you, Sjoerd. Best of luck in with your master's degrees in history, and Tibetan high altitude pro Shiatsu therapy.

Marigold J.A.C. Chandler-Smith

Marigold Chandler-Smith

Marigold came to us at the end of Grade Nine and we soon learned that she was quite a frolicker and a very good friend. It would not be uncommon to find Marigold in the art room, coffee in one hand, paintbrush in the other, painting up a storm while listening to Iron Butterfly. When we saw Marigold's bright red hair and fishnet tights, we should have known that she would be a demon on the soccer field. When we think of Marigold, we will think of all the spunk that she THRUST on to us with her avid skipping, tangoing, driving, Greenbean stories and all around good nature. We are sure that nothing will get Marigold down and that we will soon be reading about her exhibitions (since the tickets will, of course, be sold out). Whoop Whoop Babe.

P.S. The wolf howls at Midnight. Bring the BIG truck.

Duncan S. Cowie

Duncan S. Cowie

A.K.A. Duncle, Dunkster, Dunkmeister

"I should like to bury something precious in every place where I've been happy and then, when I was old and ugly and miserable. I could come back and dig it up remember." -BRIDESHEAD REVISITED by EVELYN WAUGH

When the right Hon. Sir Dun. S. Cowie II Esq. arrived at HGS in Grade 9, he acted the part of the quiet, reclusive, Granciscan monk. However, his overbearing Italian machismo soon shone through, revealing the socially active choirboy/bagpiper/house captain/womanizer/pool shark and many various interests (seen by some as twisted obsessions) grew from a need to expose himself. By this, we refer to his vast array of shorts, which never leave his body despite the changing seasons. His love of shorts was transcended by fascination for Beatles satire and albums, cheezy Monty Python reenactments, "Your Mutha" comments, half way golfing and model trains. Thanks to Duncan's depth of personality his future is looking very bright indeed. Good luck Duncan, in whichever path you wish to follow (coach of female bagpipe team at Oxford), and best wishes from all of us here at HGS.

Jana Dempsey

"I'm a tuning fork, tense and twanging all the time." -EDNA O'BRIAN

"Sanity is a cozy lie." -SUSAN SONTAG

Jana Dempsey

Jana Dempsey joined us in Grade 10 and our lives haven't been the same since. Her love of Friday is extreme, to say the least She is a driven student who doesn't think twice of voicing her opinion, and acting on it, as any player of an opposing soccer team could reveal. Jana love/ coffee and doesn't always deal well with stress. Jana is involved in both the performing and the fine arts. When she isn't labouring intensively over any number of art projects she has on the go. She has a sweet disposition and a seemingly innocent appearance, she enjoys commuting with nature and has an aversion to shopping malls and large expanses of parking lot. Seeing how her mind works at warp speed, the girl who attended Alabama's prestigious space camp, is also considering a career in documentaries. Look for her in all the world's hot spots, she's coming to a theatre near you. Well Jana, my friend, we hope you have all the success in the world. A little wine?

Kim Jaya ☺

Kim Jaya

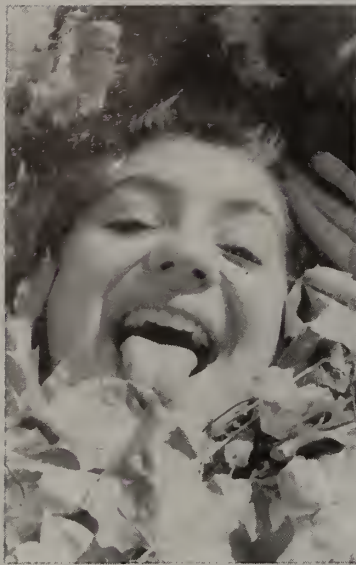

Although Kim has just happily arrived in our small little family, this year, she's made quite the statement with her suave Malaysian accent and her rings which are almost the same size as she is. Despite her size and gentle disposition she is quite the aggressive soccer player. She has the exceptional ability to down a six-pack in thirty seconds (fruit roll-ups that is!). Her funky attire makes it impossible to lose this girl to a large crown. It's great to have you here Kim. Good luck in university of whatever you may do!!!!

Sandra Klass

A.K.A. Lothar of the Hill People

"There are bones beneath my skin./Beneath the blood and sweat and love that hangs on everybody/ there is a dead man trying to get out." -THE COUNTING CROWS

Sandra Klass

Sandra came from boarding school in England to the Grammar School in Grade eleven. Sandra is the only member of our class who makes her permanent residence at the Bean, where she gets math tutoring. She will be remembered for pickles in batter, monopoly money in her underwear and her weird sandwiches. Sandra can often be found at pool-not the swimming kind-or at her job at the Pewter House. Lothar's weapon is a pewter peanut and when she grows up she plans on becoming a pewter woman. Sandra is a wonderful person to have in the class because she makes us all cakes on our birthdays. We love Sandra, oh yes we do, oh Sandra we love you (to Keji tune).

P.S. Trips to South America, Ottawa, Kingston, Quebec

Nat Pearre

Nat Pearre

"To laugh is proper to man" -MARTIN LUTHER

"He is a fool his whole life long/Who does not love wine, women, and song." -MARTIN LUTHER

Nat. Such an interesting character. Whether it's his hair, his single handed mastery of logic and reason, or some other demigod-like quality, we know he's original. He has accomplished many things. Such as going to the Grammar School for thirteen years and graduating with only minor lacerations. He had lead roles in soccer, drama, academics, music and student council. Not only did he excell in mind and body, but his soul was greater than his accomplishments. He was kind and he was always willing to help his peers with their troubles and homework. He plans a career in engineering design related studies and hopes to find himself at the top of his class in Princeton, Swathmore or his choice of post secondary school. Overall, Nat is akin to a Nietzschean super-being, a paragon of justice, a defender of reason, and overall, the most amiable gentlemen we've ever met.

P.S. He is also the tallest graduate.

Tina Piper

Ever since our first day in Primary at Armbrae Academy, I knew Tina was special. Tina has been at the Grammar School ever since Grade one, except for one year when she went to Greece in Grade 7. Shy, sweet Tina left our Grade 6 class to go to Greece, when she returned from Greece in Grade 8, we all noticed she had acquired a suave tan, as well as several other strange characteristics. She has an average hovering around the 100% range, but she still manages to find the time to fit in a game of pinball every now and then. Tina approaches all of her numerous tasks with enthusiasm, and I will remember the flair and panache which she lent to the yearbook co-editors of the Grammarians. Without Tina and her highly scientific theories, Keji would never have been the same. In the future, we will probably see Tina accepting her Nobel Prize for science.

Nicki Porter

Nicki Porter
A.K.A. Sandra

Ninja Nicki, behind her bright smile, lies the heart of a gas pumping wild woman. She is a seemingly innocent gal, who plays basketball and is a aspiring saxophone player. This year, Nicki is bringing her great spirit to the school as co-captain of Acadia. (Beat em, Bust 'em, Go Acadia!!) She is also a member of Upper Six Caffeine Addiction Self-Help Group: she meets with other coffee lovers in the art room, or at Tim's, and helps herself to a hot cup of coffee. Nick's fashion sense is beyond words: who wouldn't remember our class trip to Quebec with Nicki prancing around Rue St. Jean with her fur coat and Chanel handbag. We often sit and wonder why this gal is so special to us. It is her light-hearted attitude or her leopard print tights?. Nicki would like to be studying medicine in the future, perhaps at McGill. Upper Six is sure that she will succeed in whatever she does. We'll miss ya babe!! Chow. Love J. & S.

Nadia Rushdi
A.K.A. Nadeers

"If you will practice being fictional for awhile you will understand that fictional characters are sometimes more real than people with bodies and heartbeats."

Nadia Rushdi

-RICHARD BACH

Nadeers came to the Grammar School in Grade Ten, and our class (and soccer team) haven't been the same since. Not only was she a keen mid fielder, but she also brightened our games with her attractive flowered leggings. But her talents don't end on the soccer field as she is also a mean volleyball player, and a sonic track star. Nadia's interests don't end with sports. She's also a warm hearted, generous soul, who's environmentally friendly, concerning herself with the class's nutrition, and sharing her tasty snacks. Nadia aspires to become a lumber jack and we are sure she will be found, at some point in the future, wandering the forests of British Colombia, talking with the animals and generally communing with nature. Or maybe not. What ever you decide to do we wish you luck. Don't forget all your fun days at HGS, Babe.

Jamie Stoltz

Jamie Stoltz

"... and the moment shot away into the plumbless depths of the past, to mingle with all the lost opportunities that are drowned there."

-CHARLES

DICKENS, "HARD TIMES" "Lesson learned/Wish me luck/Soothe the burn/Wake me up" -NIRVANA.

Jamie is a mystic man, brilliant scientist, exotic artist, and lover of the sensuous, soft, and squidgy. Jamie fences, plays soccer, basketball, and can out "Paaah-Hooooo" anyone. Academically, Jamie has probably won many awards, but he is too modest to tell us which. In the future, Jamie will attend his choice of Waterloo or Dalhousie, and then will out drink Ireland, comb his hair, start a revolution, and absorb the dark powers of your soul. Best of all Jamie can be a great friend, even when he's distracted holding the fabric of the universe together by his fingertips.

"Gatsby believed in the green light, the orgastic future that year by year recedes before us. It eluded us then, but that's no matter-tomorrow we will fun father, stretch out our arm farther . . . And one fine morning-" -F. SCOTT FITZGERALD

Natalie is one of the few elite members who has been at the school since Grade 3, so she definitely deserves a six year pin. Natalie has been active in all sports-she can climb Keji trees like a monkey-and is Student Council President. Natalie is an international jet-setter, who goes to Europe every vacation and she has an uncanny nature fashion sense. She talks really fast sometimes which helps her in debating. Natalie will especially be remembered for her love of Fridays and her ability to rouse a crowd into a feverish frenzy. She has a wonderful sense of humour, and she will be missed a great deal by all her classmates at the Grammar School. Natalie will excel in whatever she chooses to become be it pharmacist, journalist, UN President, professional debating coach. We wish her luck in the States where she plans on attending university, and remember Natalie: 1 800 369 SLIM, downtown Toronto at night, hall ways and hotel rooms in Antigonish and triple crises'.

If I could put some things in a time capsule, they would be:

Jamie: the memoirs of the P.C. party of Canada, a test that I don't want my parents to see.

James W.: a hacky sac!

Richard: my bike, a cheese sandwich.

Tom: my nose, a helmet.

Jack: our *$@! exams, my smelly locker.

Jenny: Devil sticks, mellow gold

Laura: newspaper, clothes.

Jason: a video of Don Cherry's shows and advertisements.

Tamar: Kurt Cobain, Allan.

Lauren: Roy, cooking

Fiona: our health book.

Alexa: a life supply of late slips, one of Stephan's chocolate chip cookies.

Stefan: a hacky sac, Leroy.

Matthew: my chess set, my Montreal Habs pennant.

Joshua: my locker

Stephen: a 1994 election pamphlet, a "let's stop racism pin".

Billy: my hamster's memoirs,

James P.: Super Nintendo, a lazer disc.

Michael: pieces of art, records.

Jonathan: Halifax Grammar School, French and Math.

Donald: all of my textbooks, a lit match.

Alia: THE DAY OF THE TRIFFIDS, money.

The Road Not Taken

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveller, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could
To where it bent in the undergrowth;

Then took the other, as just as fair,
And having perhaps the better claim,
Because it was grassy and wanted wear;
Though as for that the passing there
Had worn them really about the same.

And both that morning equally lay
In leaves no step had trodden black.
Oh, I kept the first for another day!
Yet knowing how way leads on to way,
I doubted if I should ever come back.

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I -
I took the one less travelled by,
And that has made all the difference.

My Magic Dinosaur - It Can Fly, I Have Always Wanted A Dinosaur

Last night I felt a bump under my pillow. I didn't know what was under it but there was a dino. I was surprised as thought dinosaurs were dead, but one was still alive. It moved slowly because I didn't want to scare him I fed him a huge hamburger so he would not eat me. I knew by his teeth he was a meat-eater. I rode on his tail to school. Mrs. Moxon was surprised but he was friendly and after school I went swimming with him. I slid down his tail instead of the water slide and after I want home.

Me and my dinosaur had a long day and then me and my dinosaur went home.

I Love This Tree

This tree loves me. He is my friend. He lets me hide in his branches when we play hide and seek. I love this tree. This tree loves me. In the fall he drops some leaves. They make a carpet for me to play in. I love to make a pile first and jump in. I love this tree.

The Little Rabbit Who Ran Away

There was a rabbit. He was happy rabbit. He lived on a hill. He had a small family. One day when no one was looking, he ran off into the trees.

But suddenly he saw a snake slithering towards him.

Rabbit ran fast and bumped into his mother. Mom said "Where have you been?"

"I ran away but I had a lot of fun."

Sudan is the biggest country in Africa. The biggest river in Africa is the Nile. The elephant is endangered. We had a visitor from Nigeria.

Looking At A Toy Catalogue

When I look at a toy catalogue it is like going through an imaginary store.
Each page is like an ails.
I turn a page and go down a new one.
I can choose what I want
and what I don't want.
I want a raptor guard set
with real walkie-talkies,
a canteen, a stick dart gun.
If I had that I would play with my brother and we could catch dinosaurs.
I don't want girl-stuff like dolls and tea sets.
When I come to those pages I flip right by them.
In the FAO Schwartz catalogue
there's this huge speaker with two microphones and a real C.D. player.
If I had those I'd make lots of music and play my Mom and Dad's C.D.s until they said, "stop that noise!"
My imaginary store is always open and easy to get to.
Just open a toy catalogue and you're there.

The Storm

One evening, after what seemed to be a perfectly normal sunny day, two classmates decided to collect chestnuts beneath the beautifully coloured autumn trees. Forsythe, the temperamental one, and Woodrow, the annoying computer whiz, were friends mostly because no one else would include them in their group. As usual, Forsythe was careful not to touch his clothes. He was very fashion conscientious and didn't want to get dirty. Woodrow didn't care though, he wasn't a so called "wanna be", so he jumped into a pile of raked leaves. Meanwhile Forsythe was bragging about how good he was at everything. Forsythe seemed to need to prove himself to everybody.

"I hereby declare myself the upmost best. I . . ."

"Would you be quiet?"

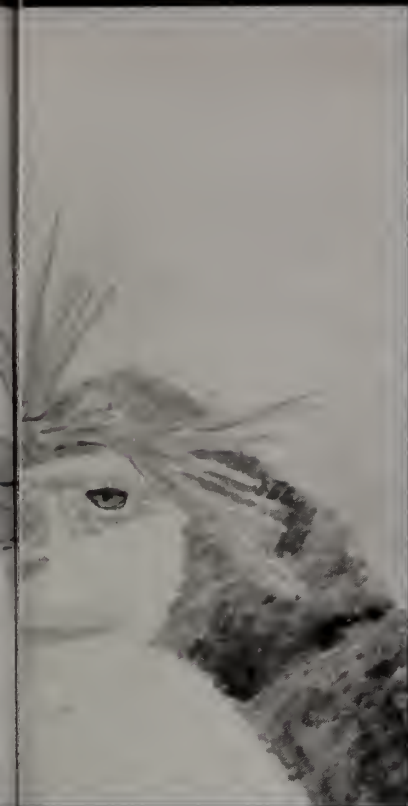

exclaimed Woodrow.

"Well excuuuuuuuuuse me mister know it all." Forsythe replied.

"You're just jealous because I ace all of the tests and I'm the teacher's favourite." snapped Woodrow. They kept bickering until the sky turned pitch black. They seemed to have lost track of time. Suddenly a flash of light reflected off their frightened faces. Lightening!!

Forsythe and Woodrow were heading for home in a matter of milliseconds. There was another life-threatening lightening bolt and they could only imagine that it was from Thor racing in his chariot with thunder rumbling on his wheels and lightening flashing from his hammer. Both Forsythe and Woodrow's imaginations ran off because they were in the midst of doing a project in mythology and they both became caught up in how ex-

The Dream That Came True

It all started out when the Chicago Bulls became three time champs. I knew that when my brothers got home from the game they would be bragging to me that they had done it for the third time. My brothers, Adam and Jeremy, play for the Chicago Bulls and always brag to me that I am the only girl in the family and can't play basketball with them. This is because there are no professional basketball teams for women which I think is pathetic.

The only member of my family that understands how I feel about this situation is my twin brother Darcy. My parents, Jim and Julie, never understand how I feel about this thing. My mother thinks that when I grow up I should be an actress or a novel writer. My word for those things is ohhh. Other than basketball, I like to dance with my friends, do Tae Kwon Do with my other brother Ryan and play badminton with Darcy, Adam, Jeremy and my best friend Mike.

I always love to dream about being a basketball star like Michael Jordan, Pippen or Cart White but I know that would never come true because I am a girl. The words "Girls can't play basketball!" keep echoing in my head from hearing them so much from my brothers. Darcy once said to me that it would be a good idea if I wrote to the President and asked him if he could do anything about getting a female basketball team. I took what Darcy said into consideration and decided to write the President.

This island here this island of mine
I would not leave at any time.

From the hills so high to Coral Cove,
T'was off a ship to this island I dove.
They did not turn for whom I loved.
Made my decision and with hands
Holding me back I made the jump
Returning to this island of mine,
Leaving that horrible ship behind.

When first on the shore times were Better than before. Until the day
I saw the sight of my brother's face,
Paint white.

Then I heard a howl of glee
Saw the most terrifying thing I ever
Did see. T'was a day with a roar
Like thunder, had a smiling face from
The kill of the Plunder. Its teeth
Were barred and sharper than blade.
Its fur blacker than night with
Green eyes glowing into mine.
Then with a howl of triumph ran into
The night.

They're not all that lurks at night
Much more evil lurks in the dark
But with a head held high I walk
Fourth.

Dolphins

Dolphins that I love,
Embraced by the waves.
Cutting the water sharply like a knife,
With waves of water striking their backs.
Gliding gracefully over an abyss
And smoothly sliding near icy shores,
As if guided by some mystic force,
From the heavens above us all.

You freed me from the darkness,
By guiding me through.
The roaring gale didn't scare you,
Though sudden movements do.
As well as heroic creature's you
Are brace in your own way.
Strengthened by this force.

Life is a Fright

The withered, old man,
bent toward the ground
Grasping a branch in his worn, aged hand,
Sat down on a stump to rest his tired body.

He had lived a long life, not a hard life
But, yes, a challenging life.
Most of it was a tough fight.
He got up and continued to fight.

Words

I've sat down to write these words,
To set your mind a wonder.
I've sat down to write these words,
To set your soul a thunder.

My words are meant to evoke a thought,
Bring to light a hidden feeling.
My words are meant to evoke lost love,
Bring to life some needed meaning.

So take my words and understand,
With them comes a promise.
Let nature take you by the hand,
And everything will be fine, I promise.

Was She Wondering?

In a dark room,
with a candle lit.
In a corner is where I sit thinking what
I could have done,
instead of let her take the gun.

She was so beautiful
she was so sweet,
but her life she dare not keep.

Nothing ever seemed to be wrong.
I did not know what would happen if I left her alone.

I wonder what she was thinking?
Was she sitting here
like me?
Did she have a candle lit?
Or was she hoping desperately that someone would help her,

give her a hug and a kiss.

Was she wondering if she would be missed?

Disguise

I saw a man
walking in the weather.
He wasn't walking alone,
he was walking with his past.

I know because he dragged his shiny, black shoes
through dirty black puddles.
He let the hair drops burn in his eyes.
His face dripped and his briefcase too.

He didn't appear sad,
but glad it was raining so violently.
I don't know where he was going,
and I don't know if he got there.

I think he doesn't like the sunshine.
I think he likes the water drops on his face.

Walking in the sunshine,
his face is wet.
I know he likes the rain.

Once there stood a lad named Fred,
He was so dense he could break concrete with his head,
Sometimes he thought that off the floor he could fall,

Poor ol' Fred, too bad he is dead.

Society

In societies high speed motion,
It is important to reflect,
On every single notion,
And on it's effect;
Society could come tumbling down,
At the smallest of matters,
Even a misspelled noun,
Could put us in tatters;
If we look back into the past,
And studied all our actions,
Our world would not be cast,
Into all different factions.

The Bus

Many days I go to school on the bus
The other day; a man kicked up quite a fuss
I could not tell what was so wrong
To make him yell and shout for so long

The same faces are on the bus everyday
I see them when I get on and pay buses are often very late
And do not run on every date

But I never get to school the last
It doesn't give me a lot of sorrow
And I'll be on a bus tomorrow.

Swift! Gather around the lantern,
Emerging minuscule clever adventurers,
Not bees searching for sweet substance,
Nor ladybugs playing upon the gales,
Or even a lone butterfly fluttering daintily,

A storm, in his head, surrounding his mind,
Lightening fluster behind his shining eyes,
His mind clouded and stormy yet organized,
Suddenly, idea, like shafts of sun light break

The road stretches onward to infinity.
I stand and look far out over the horizon.
If only I could see beyond the next hill
To where it might end.
But it keeps going on forever.
If only I knew what lies ahead,

But I do not know.
So I keep walking on this endless journey,
Along this path
Which stretches onwards
To infinity.

Afraid

Awake with the fear already in place,
heart beating faster with every pace.
Thought of a platform as your stage,
high in the sky forever the age.
Peering up to see the highest form,
a burst of fright, or is it a storm.
A climb and march to take a year,
it will end despite the fear.
Every step brings on more tension,
tight as a vice, and growing with mention.
Hundreds of lasers looking your way,
will your life be the final pay?
A sudden rush and pound of your heart,
all in motion ready to part.
The moment that heightens the piercing pain,
will you ever again be sane.
As the sun sets to end the last day,
a deep breath to ease, the fear gone away.

Mr. Hunter

At the beginning of the year, we were not aware that our chemistry and computer science teacher for four years, was about to embark on a journey that would leave us without a Mr. Hunter. We have now discovered that Mr. Hunter is going South, where he will become a professor at the University of Indiana.

Mr. Hunter has done much for our school over the past four years he has introduced the Inventor's Workshop to the Junior high and has helped organize the Science Olympics.

Mr. Hunter has taught us that through working hard and keeping an open mind we can succeed in obtaining all of our goals.

In the words of the great man himself, "You're a genius". On behalf of all the students, thank you.

When the twenty-four members of the HGS Debating Society gathered for their traditional year-end awards banquet at Mexicali Rosa's, the first thing on their minds was food, the second thing was summer vacation. The busiest debating year ever had ended several weeks before.

Had they travelled! They went to Sydney, East Pictou, Windsor, even Winnipeg.

Had they excelled! They were the top Junior Impromptu Team (Ian and Karen). They won the Cross-Examination Finals at the International Independent Schools' Public Speaking Tournament (Alice and Liza). They were the Best School Team at the Dalhousie University International (Ian, Karen,

They were the top Grade Nine debater (Ian) and the top Grade Seven debater (Robin) again at Dalhousie. They won the HGS Round Robin (Julie and Alexa).

Alice's victories had gone global! She was debating for Nova Scotia in Winnipeg when she won the Weedon Trophy for Best National Debater and will now represent Canada in the international tournament in Wales, February 1995.

They had worked hard at hosting the Débats à l'Acadienne and volunteered to host the Impromptu Tournament in October 1994.

Many of the Debaters had participated in the Model United Nations in Bridgewater.

Two had run the Provincial Youth Commonwealth Conference (Liza and Natalie). One had been Premier of the Nova Scotia Youth Parliament (Tina).

There was not any debating at the banquet however. For a change, there was total agreement! The tacos were delicious!

M. Sinclair

Thousands of people are in prison because of their beliefs and identity. Many are held without charge or trial. Torture and the death penalty are widespread. In many countries, women, men and children have "disappeared" after being taken into official custody. Still others have been killed without any pretence of legality. These human rights violations occur in countries of widely differing ideologies.

Amnesty International is an impartial, independent, worldwide movement of human rights activists who believe that governments must not deny individuals their basic human rights.

The HGS Amnesty International society met Thursdays at lunch to write letter to heads of governments stating our concerns for violations against certain individuals human rights. Our efforts were rewarded whenever we received notice that either a person's life was saved, or if they received a fair trial.

We would like to thank Mme. Smith for the time and effort she has dedicated to this cause.

Calligraphy Club

Calligraphy Club met in Prep Library every Day 6. Alice MacLachlan was a terrific helper from Upper School and each week we learned new calligraphy techniques. Each of the members had a special folder with various alphabets to copy. We made special cards for December holidays and one of our members, Jenny MacDonald from Prep Four did all of the calligraphy for the Prep School Poetry Festival award books.

Mrs. Buley

The members of the Calligraphy club were Jenna Jamieson, Will Mushkat, Jenny MacDonald, Sarah Smith, Almira Hussain and Sarah Langley.

The Environmental Club has had a busy, busy year. We met on every Day 4 and we talked a lot about helping the world. The two presidents this year were Elizabeth Cameron in Prep Three and Barbara Bryson from four. Each week we did special things. Sometimes we cleaned up the yard and the neighborhood, other times we had special activities like trips to Plovers and to the Body Shop.

We learned what those two businesses are doing to help save the world. Dr. Stoffyn came in and talked about an environmentally friendly holiday season in December and she also talked about solar energy. We had a very successful bake sale to raise money for emptying the blue barrel for recycled paper. Our club was small but mighty and we'd like some more new members next year!!

Titanic Club

The Titanic Club meets every Day One in the Prep Library. This year the presidents were Peter Campbell in Prep Three and Michael Miller in Prep Four. We learned all about the Titanic disaster and also watched three videos about the sinking of the Titanic. This year for the first time we had a Titanic model building contest. The entries were incredible. Some of the members made them out of Lego and others constructed them out of cardboard boxes. One model used plastic plumbing pipe for the smokestacks on top of the ship. We also presented a candle light memorial assembly on April 12th. Peter Campbell played special music on the recorder. We learned a lot about Dr. Robert Ballard's investigation under the Atlantic Ocean.

Dramatic Dance

Dramatic Dance members were Jenny MacDonald, Carole Reid, Kristin Wheatley, Jenna Jamieson, Sara Zatzman, Sara Smith, Sarah Langley, Tabitha Osler, Lauren Lindsay, Lauren Billard, Nicole Saunders and Barbara Bryson.

Dramatic Dance meets every Friday in the Auditorium from 3-4. This hard working group of girls also performs in the Dunn Theatre at the end of the year and shares some of what they do during the year with a larger audience. We listen to music and interpret what we hear through movement and drama. We also experiment with props and costume and we have a lot of fun together! Come and join us next year!

Under 13 Boys

This year's team was very young and inexperienced. The boys continued to improve each game before heading to Victoria for the CAIS tournament. Although short staffed they played very well tying St. Andrew's College and staying within a couple of goals of the other teams. Stephen Issekutz played extremely well and took team MVP honours.

right (top to bottom) - Craig Oliver, Adam Digby, Billy Killorn, George Zakher, Lewis Wolff, James Wolff, Stephan Issekutz

Junior Girls

back row - Miss Saunders, Karina Issekutz, Jenny Chetwynd, Laura Godsoe, Mark Tewksbury, Meredith Murphy, Jennifer Digby, Joanne Coxon.
front row - Laura Gray, Kim Lawrence, Jennifer Gray, Fiona Liston, Anna Finlayson, Alexa Smith (absent: Maya Mukhida, Alia Mukhida, Jen Wheatley, Michele Clark)

Junior Boys

There was a big turnover this year due to the capable hands of the U2 students who dominated the lineup. They had a fairly successful season losing in the play-offs. The boys also came second at the MAIS soccer tournament in RCS Netherwood.

Senior Boys

Another very successful season for the Sr. Boys soccer team. At the CAIS tournament in Toronto the boys, although short staffed, performed admirably by almost knocking off the eventual winner. In regional play downs the boys beat Kings-Edgell in a two game total goal 5-4 to advance to the provincials where the boys finished in third place. The Senior Boy's team included Nat Pearre, Ben Day, Adam Dyer, Giles Oland, Ken Cartmill, Jamie Stoltz, Noël Belcourt, Nick Gill, Andrew Barker, Billy Nikolaou, Chris Coxon, Iain Finlayson, Peter Brannon, Andrew Konesky, Andrew Semadeni.

Senior Girls

Our Sr. Girls Soccer team played a brief exhibition schedule against Sacred Heart, Eastern Passage and Sir John 'A' Mac-

Donald. We also attended the MAIS Tournament in Rothesay, N.B. in October. We finished the season by playing against Kings-Edgell School. The girls were very enthusiastic and showed great improvement over the season. Congratulations, girls!

Volleyball

Junior Girls

There was a strong contingent of Upper 3 girls on the team this year. We participated in the Halifax City 'B' Girls League where we made it to the Semi-Finals of the play-offs. We also participated in the MAIS Volleyball Tournament where we placed 2nd overall. Great season, girls!

Junior Boys

The Boys Volleyball team was made up mostly of Upper 2 students. With as many as 14 boys on the team a rotating system was used allowing everyone equal time. With gained experience by all, next year's team looks to be very strong. With Geoff Williams, John Beauchamp, Matthew Brannon all returning great things will be expected!

Senior Girls

There was a new influx of talent on our HGS squad this year. We participated in a Metro High School 'B' Volleyball League with Sacred Heart, Armbrae, Francophone School and Prince Andrew. The girls had a very strong season and show great promise for next year!

The players on this years team were Stephanie Hart, Lisa MacNeil-Covin, Anke Schonung, Andrea Bezanson, Racheal Butlin, Robin Borst, Janet Cooper, Alison Keen, Yvonne Herwerth, Christina Lee, Julie Henderson and Wynne Lock

Mini 'B'

Our Mini 'B' Boys Basketball team placed 1st overall in the Halifax Minor Basketball League in the 1993-94 season. Unfortunately, they were eliminated in the Semi-Final play-offs by a flu-bug! They participated in the Mini 'B' Provincials and missed the Championship game by 2 points in the Semi-Final Round. A super season guys. Well done!

Mini 'C'

This first year Mini team showed extraordinary improvement over the 1993-94 basketball season. They participated in the Halifax Minor Basketball League where they made it all the way to the Semi-Final game of the Championship Play-offs. Outstanding season!

Bantam 'B' Boys

Our Bantam 'B' Boys team participated in a very tough Halifax Minor Basketball League in 1993-94. For a group of mostly first year players at this level, they showed great talent and a lot of potential for the future. Their participation at Bantam 'B' Provincials will only help their play for next year.

(from left to right) back row - George Zakher, Craig Oliver, Bill Killorn, Michael Lawrence, Adam Digby, Mike DeGrasse, James Bryson

Bantam 'C'

This was the first year for all members of this team at the Bantam (Under 13) level. Although a very small team they showed steady improvement over the season while participating in the Halifax Minor Basketball League. Well done, guys!

front row - Robert Liston, Ivan Bercholz, Jonathan Richardson, Michael Smith, Jason Lindsay

front row - John Belliveau, Mike DeGrasse, Stefan Lalonde, John Beauchamp, Thomas Chamagne, Toby Stoltz

With a new league format this year it took something away from the boys play. They made the playoffs before losing a heart braking defeat by 2 points to Cornwallis. The team was led by John Beauchamp, Dan Roscoe, Geoff Williams and Toby Stoltz.

Junior Girls

Senior Boys

As a very young team, the boys started the season slowly before gaining momentum. This year's team was led by the play of Andrew Barker on the inside and Adam Dyer on the perimeter. The boys lost out to both Hants North and Kings-Edgehill in the regional play downs.

There was a great deal of inexperience to overcome for the Sr. Girls Basketball team this year. We managed to teach our new players the game and have some fun as well. Our victory at the MAIS Basketball Tournament vs RCS Netherwood was the highlight of the season. Nice shooting, Jen DeGrasse!

Senior Girls

Badminton

Prep School

There is always lots of enthusiasm for Prep School Badminton. We participated in the MAIS Badminton Tournament at Sacred Heart in April. We finished in either 1st or 2nd place in all the divisions we entered. Super job! The team included Adam Digby, Jamie Gregor, James Bryson, Anthony Abato, Darah Gaum, Lizzie Dodds, Quynn Morehouse and Lydia Dunn.

This year's team was extremely successful at the MAIS meet winning the III and IV divisions. At the Metro meet our Intermediate team qualified for Regionals. Also qualifying were John Beauchamp who eventually came 3rd in provincials, Toby Stoltz, Matthew Brannon, Michelle Clark, Brant Carson and Julie Henderson also qualified individually in the intermediate section.

Upper School

Track & Field

A group of Prep Fours and Prep Sixes attended the City Track and Field Meet on June 7th and 8th at Saint Mary's University. Their participation marks the first time HGS has entered a team in three years! Well done!

This year's team was very successful. Two people qualified for provincials. They were Joanne Coxon in the Jr. Girls 100 and 200 metres and Janet Cooper in the 1000 metre.

Welcome to the H.G.S. Junior High School Drama Society's production of "I Remember Mama". The play is a dramatization of six of Kathryn Forbes' short stories from the collection entitled: "MAMA'S BANK ACCOUNT". The characters and scenes are all drawn from real life family members and activities.

The play celebrates the homely virtues of honesty courage, sympathy, understanding, love and love of learning. Most of all it celebrates the importance of family and the power of character. Mama herself is a memorable figure who demonstrates great tenderness of heart, forthrightness, wit and wisdom.
